

SECTION EIGHT

Des Moines Sunday Register

JULY 31, 1921.

Photo-Gravure Picture Section Eight Pages of Art Illustrations

A Day Spent With Earl Caddock, Iowa's Champion Wrestler, at His Home at Walnut

Director by YATES-R&T Staff

THIS IS THE WAY Earl Caddock, Jr. looks mother.

THE CADDOCK HOME at Walnut.

THE CADDOCK GARAGE at Walnut. Where Earl gets exercise changing tires when not engaged in wrestling.

WE WANT YOU TO MEET now Mr. Charles Mack, master of all fighters to which the motor family is a guest. All other world champion wrestler. Will it not soon be the honor? He won't say, and we won't receive a guest.

THE WRESTLER'S SWEET HEART - young sister Miss Earl Caddock. She brings the home from home at Walnut when Earl is away wrestling.

THEY'RE ALL GOOD FRIENDS - Earl, Earl Charles, Jr., Charles and little Robert also. Earl Charles, Jr. looks as if he could tickle the world right now.